Village Friends presents a 3-Part Series Aging Gracefully: Life on Your Terms

Village Friends will be hosting sessions with professionals in the Auburn/Opelika area that will share their expertise and passion for care. These sessions are FREE and open to the public. Please share with individuals that may benefit from learning about the aging process as well as services and organizations in the community that are committed to assisting individuals aging with grace. If you would like to attend, call to schedule a ride.

Part 1- Care at Home

Thursday, July 18 10:00 – 11:30 a.m. at the Auburn Chamber of Commerce located at 714 E Glenn Avenue. Lunch Buddies is at Chappy's at 1:00 p.m.

Part 2- Final Stages of Care

Thursday, October 24 10:00 – 11:30 a.m. at the Auburn Chamber of Commerce

Part 3- When Care Requires a Move

Date to be announced- early 2020

We want your feedback: Surveys coming soon

Village Friends wants to hear from you! In the coming days, we will be reaching out to subscribers and volunteers for feedback on Village Friends' services, processes, and programs. It is important to get your input in order to maximize our ongoing efforts to address and meet your needs, interests, and concerns.

Subscribers will receive a survey by mail with a stamped return envelop to make it convenient for you to respond. Volunteers will receive a survey by email to complete online. Please submit your responses by the end of July.
